ABOUT OUR MISSION

Duo Amie's mission is to inspire and bring together diverse people through musical programs that incorporate musical and visual imagery and discourse. We believe in the power of music to inspire, engage, and heal both individuals and communities. Our goal is to harness the energy and imagination that music offers to enable positive change through our carefully crafted programs. We are particularly passionate about social justice, female empowerment, and climate change; three issues that we believe are crucial to sustainable health, harmony, healing, and happiness. To support this, Duo Amie regularly organizes and performs concerts to benefit a diverse range of domestic and international charities and non-profit groups that provide vital help to their communities. Recent past recipients include:

- Rosie's Place, the first women's shelter in the United States, which helps poor and homeless women in Boston;
- Cradles to Crayons, a local non-profit organization providing children in low-income and homeless situations with living essentials;
- Gateway Arts, an internationally acclaimed studio art center dedicated to providing arts-based services to adults with disabilities and/or mental illness;
- The Vietnam Vascular Anomalies Center in Ho Chi Minh City, a humanitarian collaboration between physicians from Vietnam and the USA to treat children with disfiguring birthmarks.
- Yes! Academy, part of the non-profit organization American Voices, which promotes cross-cultural exchanges, particularly in conflict-ridden areas).
- Vinfen, a nonprofit providing services and advocacy for people living with mental health conditions.
